RE: Return of Premium Rider or Withdrawal Benefits

DA: September 1, 1989

The amendments to Chapter 0780-1-29 of the Department's regulations, dealing with accident and health policies which provide for return of premium or withdrawal benefits, have been approved by the Attorney General. Attached you will find a copy of the rule amendments as promulgated. Briefly, the amendments:

1. Eliminate the restriction that the benefit could only be added to disability income or hospital indemnity contracts.

2. Eliminate the prohibition against a periodic deferred benefit payable at the end of specified periods (such as 10 years) during the premium paying period.
